The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart this week is a Friday where we are not obliged to abstain from meat, since it is a solemnity, the highest rank of liturgical celebration. There will be an evening Latin Mass (Missa Cantata) with the parish choir at 6 pm. It is a beautiful Catholic practice to have an image of the Sacred Heart in our homes and consecrate our families to the Sacred Heart (using a prayer that can be easily found online in various forms), so Friday's feast could be a good opportunity to do this.
