AN ACT OF CONTRITION: Oh my God, I am very sorry for having offended you, and I detest all my sins, because they offend you, my God, who are deserving of all my love. Firmly I resolve, by the help of your grace, to sin no more. Amen.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION: Lord Jesus, though I may not at this moment receive you physically in Holy Communion, please come into my heart, your whole Soul and Divinity, and remain there, and keep me safe. I love you Jesus, always. Amen.

Going into hospital? If you or a relative are in hospital, please inform the hospital ward itself (not the parish) that you or your relative are Catholic and would like to see the chaplain. The hospital chaplaincy arranges the Catholic chaplain to visit those who are admitted to hospital.

Priests will only be able to make physical home visits (other than phone visits) to those who are in danger of death. The chaplain can only go into the hospital in an emergency situation and by the invitation of the hospital.

Thank you for your continued financial support for the Church at this difficult time.

If you are interested in setting up a standing order or gift aid donation, please contact Cathedral House.

On Thursday this week, the Church rejoices in the celebration of the Ascension of the Lord Jesus into heaven. This is a very important and beautiful feast. 40 days after the Resurrection, the Lord returns to the Father in heaven, and commissions His Body which is left upon the earth – the Church led by the Apostles and their successors – to preach the Gospel to all people and to baptise all nations. He reigns enrobed in our human flesh, bearing our wounds in His Body.

“In Christ ascended into Heaven, the human being has entered into intimacy with God in a new and unheard-of way; we henceforth find room in God forever. “Heaven” does not indicate a place above the stars but something far more daring and sublime: it indicates Christ himself, the divine Person who welcomes humanity fully and forever, the One in whom God and us are inseparably united forever. We draw close to Heaven, indeed, we enter Heaven to the extent that we draw close to Jesus and enter into communion with him.” – Pope Benedict XVI

Opening for private prayer – depending upon how the government’s regulations pan out, at some point soon, churches may be able to open for private prayer. Here at the Cathedral, we’d still have to keep the doors locked in the morning while the parish Holy Mass is being celebrated, but, if this happens, would be able to open in the afternoon and early evening, with some restrictions on movement, number of people in the building, etc. Confession would also potentially be available more freely than it is now. To prepare for this, we’d like some helpful volunteers to assist with cleaning, stewarding and assisting, as we have now got used to when we go to the supermarket, for example. If you are interested in this work at some point in the future, please e-mail Fr Simon fathersimondavies@gmail.com

Write to the government – individuals might also want to support the Church’s negotiations by writing to the government to explain how important it is that our Churches are open soon, even just for private, solitary prayer. When writing it may be worth mentioning that many Catholics would happily volunteer to help disinfect churches as frequently as necessary; and that for Catholics the ability to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle has a special significance, even if public ceremonies cannot be held. As our Cardinal reminded us on the radio this past week, this is a key aspect of our faith which differentiates the Catholic Church from some other branches of the Christian family which is only right to acknowledge. Canon Paul is doing very well, and is now ready to help with pastoral work. Although he is not yet resident in Norwich, he is now contactable by phone on 07445 818 415. Hopefully, in short order, he’ll be able to come back to Norwich. He thanks everybody for their kind messages and good wishes and prayers.

Fr Andrew’s Podcast - the tenth episode of Fr Andrew’s podcast, Ego Sum Via, will be available to download on Sunday at egosumvia.podbean.com, and will include the readings and homily for Sunday’s Mass.

Norfolk County Council helpline for the vulnerable in need: 0344 800 8020.

If you live in NR2, you can also contact a local group which is helping support our neighbours. Please call 07375 965 908 or visit nr2corona.canobe.com. The NR2 group are also looking for volunteers.

The Justice and Peace Group invite you to pray with us for all those vulnerable people in Norwich, living in temporary or unsafe conditions, including those who are homeless, asylum seekers, refugees and those at risk from domestic violence. During the pandemic we have been able to support the work of The Anon Street Team, who are providing a daily hot meal to 45 homeless people temporarily housed in a hotel. Grants from our funds purchased kettles, foil containers for the food and a grant from Caritas (St Edmund’s Fund) will help provide food and essential items for the team, going forward. Please contact Sarah Ebelewicz (group chairperson) on scmebelewicz@hhotmail.com for further information.

Parishioners may be interested in following Laudato Si week next week, thinking about our role as stewards of God’s creation, about which Pope Francis reminds us in his encyclical, Laudato Si laudatosiweek.org

You may wish to catch up on Mgr John Armitage’s retreat given in Walsingham last month. If you follow this link <https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLB7HRatqrA26PI2ylmmAzB46QTHnKBk4B> (or copy it into your browser), you will find his talks available as a playlist on YouTube.
