HAIL, O CROSS, OUR ONLY HOPE

This weekend, there will be a second collection for the Holy Places. This is normally on Good Friday for the upkeep of the shrines in the Holy Land and charitable works. There will be an opportunity to make a donation for this collection at the back of the Cathedral by the glass west doors in a different coloured bucket from the normal Sunday collection.

Monday this week is the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. This celebration commemorates the restoration of the major relics of the True Cross in 629, after they were stolen by the Shah of Persia 15 years previously. This feast also commemorates the discovery of the Cross by the Briton, St Helen, the mother of Constantine, and the dedication of the first basilica which the emperor had built over the site of her discovery. It is fitting this week, then, that we are able to make a charitable contribution to the upkeep of these Holy Places. Although we will be unable to make a customary physical veneration of the relic of the True Cross on Monday, our relic will be on display to be venerated collectively, sanctified as the throne of our Saviour, drenched in His Blood.

The feast is followed on Tuesday by that of Our Lady of Sorrows, the Mother of our Crucified Lord: she constantly makes her Son's offering her own. The image of the Mother standing at the foot of the Cross symbolises the strength and freedom offered by grace to those who co-operate with His will, thereby touching His goodness and generosity.

If you are interested in becoming a Catholic, or want to know more about the Catholic faith, you may be interested to embark on the Journey in Faith programme. This year, due to restrictions on gatherings, the instruction will be given individually by one of the Priests. Please contact any of them for further details. We have already happily received several enquiries. Please pray for them.

The civil law obliges parishioners and visitors in the Cathedral Church and Narthex to wear a face covering. Persons under 11 and other persons for reasons of disability, physical or mental illness or for other reasons are exempted from wearing a mask. Some disabilities are invisible; it's important that we are all welcome in God's Holy House.

A face covering – or face mask – is a covering of the mouth and nose which remains in place without the use of hands. The priest celebrant himself is exempted from wearing a mask for the liturgy, except if he is to distribute Holy Communion, when he will wear a mask.

This week we welcome Fr Joseph Welch. Fr Joseph was born and brought up in Costessey, he is a priest of the Oratory in Oxford but has moved to the diocese for a while to be nearer to his mother who is now in a care home. During his time here, he will be staying at Cathedral House and helping out in the parish with Mass and Pastoral care.

The 16th of September also marks Canon Paul's Silver Jubilee of 25 years of Ordination as a Priest, and he will offer a Mass of Thanksgiving for his Priestly Ordination Pro Seipso Sacerdote (a Mass for the Priest himself) at 6pm. Whilst it is a shame there can be no social celebration after Mass, he would be very thankful for your prayers.

On Saturday 19th September, Andrew Neate will be ordained to the sacred priesthood. Andrew has been a deacon in the diocese for many years. He will begin his work as a priest as priest-in-charge at Fakenham. An ordination is an act of the whole church, in order that we might all have access to sacramental grace.

The deadline for registration is 15 October.

The Duckett Library will be reopening from next Sunday, 13th September, after 9am Mass, and thereafter at the usual times. Covid regulations will apply but a warm welcome awaits borrowers and browsers, the library staff will be on hand to assist you. Do come along and choose some good reading from our large and varied stock.

Of your charity, please pray for the soul of Kathleen Holland, who died last week. Kath and Arthur were very devoted members of the Cathedral congregation. The Requiem Mass will be held on Thursday 24th September at 12 Noon, but due to the government restrictions in place for funerals, this will be reserved for family members only. Kath's remains will be brought into the Church on Wednesday 23rd September at 4pm, to which all are most welcome to attend.

We give thanks for the wedding of Ed and Donna this past weekend. Please pray for them, for all married couples, and for those preparing for marriage.

Gift aid envelopes are available at the back of the Cathedral Church, for those signed up for gift aid.
